Want to do something different? How about spending a Sunday morning enjoying a light breakfast and then watching the classic MGM musical "Meet Me in St. Louis"? Brunches to be served by Lyndsey The Hollywood Theater. Bring your own bubbly (and the non-alcoholic!).

The movie marked the beginning of the golden age of MGM musicals and tells the story of a turn-of-the-century family in suburban Midwestern St. Louis in 1903. The city, and the family, are on the verge of hosting (and celebrating) the spectacular 1904 World's Fair. However, the family's head of the house is beckoned to New York and a family move that threatens to irrevocably change the lives of the family members forever.

HOLLYWOOD THEATRE HAS BEEN SOLD AND THE NEW OWNERS HAVE CHANGED THE MOVIE SCHEDULE. WE WILL ATTEMPT TO RESCHEDULE THIS MOVIE OR BOOK A DIFFERENT MOVIE, DEPENDING ON WHAT IS AVAILABLE. SORRY FOR THE INCONVENIENCE.
