St. Anton: If Austrian charm isn't enough, St. Anton offers all the action of a full-fledged resort town with the most happening nightlife in the Arlberg region, as well as a wide range of restaurants, shops, and accommodations. The pedestrian village and easy lift access makes it one of the best all-in-one destinations in the Alps, with everything you could ever need within walking distance. Beginners and intermediate skiers will enjoy the open snow fields accessible by the Rendlbahn gondolas as well as comfortable trails among the Kapall and Galzig complexes. The Galzig-Valluga cable cars carry skiers to the more challenging runs from the Vallugagrät to the village of St. Christoph. Your St. Anton ski pass will also be valid and can be used in Zurs, Lech, Stuben, St. Christoph, Sonnenkopf (Klosterle) and Zug. <http://www.stantonamarlberg.com/en/winter/ski-area>

Hotel Arlberg (★★★★): Located in the center of the resort, the Hotel Arlberg is positioned right across the street from the ski lift. Amenities include restaurant, bar, steam room, solarium, sauna, and jacuzzi. <http://www.arlberghotel.at/en/home/>
