Find that bandana you stuck somewhere in a drawer, dust off those old cowboy boots, slide into your jeans and join DJ Becky in the Axis bar for a fun evening of country line dancing at the new Latitude 40 in The Point at North Fayette in Robinson (the old Roomful Express building up behind Wal-Mart). No partner is needed ~ just join in and kick up your heels to a little Texas two-step and Boot-Scootin' Boogie! Dancing feet make for a happy face ~ and what better way to do "Get Over the Hump" Wednesday.

This will be a "meet us there!" event, so please call Marilyn and let her know you're coming so she can carve out a special section for PSC-goers!

Opening just this past November, Latitude 40 is owned by a Robinson native and Montour High School grad ~ and he's brought a new entertainment complex to the 'Burgh that is unmatched in the area. The three-story complex is host to a sports bar, a fine dining restaurant, an arcade room, 20 bowling lanes, the Cinegrille (a dine-in theater) and LatitudeLIVE (live performance theater for comedy and music). So come check out these great new Pittsburgh venue.

~~And if you want to brush up on your skills, check out "country line dancing" on YouTube for some refreshers.~~
