We Pittsburghers are so lucky to have our county parks for great summer events.....and an even added-benefit is to have the Duquesne University Tamburitzans perform for free at South Park! America's longest-running multicultural song & dance company, the Duquesne University Tamburitzans is a unique ensemble of talented young folk artists dedicated to the performance and preservation of the music, songs, and dances of Eastern Europe and neighboring folk cultures. The performers are full-time students who receive substantial scholarship awards from Duquesne University, with additional financial aid provided by Tamburitzans Scholarship Endowment Funds. So bring your blankets, lawn chairs and snacks to enjoy a late summer evening of dancing splendor in the South Hills of the 'Burgh.

Directions:

The amphitheater is located at the intersection of Buffalo Drive (Brownsville Road) and McCorkle Road. Limited parking is available off of Farmshow Drive, which is about 520 feet into the park from the intersection.
