Come visit one of the most unique watering holes in the Pittsburgh area. Bob's Garage is known for its eclectic atmosphere and good times! Bob's Garage becomes a local destination during festive seasons because the two-room building gets completely overloaded with holiday decorations. The effort for Christmas apparently takes two full Sundays and about 250 man hours..... it doesn't get pulled down until the first Sunday after Valentine's Day, so we'll miss that – but plan on it for 2014 so we can take part in "The Spirit of Christmas" (<http://spirit-of-christmas.org/>), a yearly tradition there. We'll enjoy $1.00 off all drinks and possibly some other enticements (stay tuned!). Karaoke starts at 8:30 – so stay longer and sing your heart out. We'll cheer you on!!!

Directions: From Downtown Pittsburgh, cross the Allegheny River via the Fort Duquesne Bridge (I-279 North). Take exit 1D to Route 28 North toward Chestnut Street/East Ohio Street/Etna. Go 7.8 miles on Route 28. Take exit 8 to Fox Chapel Road/Waterworks Drive/Freeport Road. At the bottom of the exit, turn right onto Fox Chapel Road and drive 0.1 miles to the stop light at Freeport Road. Turn left onto Freeport Road and drive 0.6 Miles. Bob's Garage will be on your right.
