This operetta (a form of theatre and genre of light opera which includes spoken dialogue, songs and dances) presents a political satire wrapped around a love story and a conflict between two very different worlds. On one hand, we have the world of the immortal fairies – all female, somewhat trippy and chaotic, and ruled by a queen; on the other, we have the world of British parliamentary peers -- all male, stodgy and precise, and subject to the law as interpreted by the Lord Chancellor.

Please let Francine know by email/phone by 7/31 if interested in attending and whether you are a Senior -- we will buy tickets only for those interested.
