JACKSON HOLE MOUNTAIN RESORT: Nowhere else in America will you find such tremendous top-to-bottom vertical, more natural terrain features, fewer “cut” trails, backcountry access and extreme skiing with chutes, cliffs and steeps all inbounds. There’s also plenty of intermediate and beginner terrain. The town of Jackson (12 miles away) offers an eclectic mix of Wild West (check out the famous Cowboy Bar where saddles are used in lieu of barstools) and many modern amenities. Yellowstone National Park, Old Faithful, Grand Teton National Park and the National Elk Refuge are all located nearby. Think big when you think of Jackson Hole skiing: 2,500 acres of great skiing, including the 4,139 foot continuous vertical drop of Rendezvous Mountain, a must for experts. Après Vous Mountain offers spacious cruising and Casper Bowl lures intermediates with just the right degree of challenge. Beginners have plenty of choices also in this vast mountainscape. <http://www.jacksonhole.com>

Grand Targhee Resort: On the other side of the mountain. (43 miles away). Not included but within reach. <http://www.grandtarghee.com>
