Grindelwald is among one of Europe's oldest mountain resorts. The valley is in the beautiful Bernese Oberland on the northern side of the Swiss Alps, just a few miles outside of Interlaken and 2 hours from Zurich. Grindelwald is a part of the Jungfrau region that is now also popular for the James Bond Movie "His Majesty's Secret Service". The region is also known for spectacular surrounding mountains of Eiger, Mönch, and Jungfrau. Grindelwald, which located at 3392 ft., has access to three distinct ski areas. Grindelwald- First, the main ski area, is just above town; Männlichen- Wegen with plenty of intermediate terrain; and the Kleine- Scheidegg, with shared access to Mürren- Schilthorn and its famous World Cup downhill course, Lauberhorn. Together there is a combined 51 lifts serving 124 miles of trails with vertical runs over 4300 feet.

Non-skiers will also get their money's worth: 62 miles of hiking paths enable you to explore the mountain scenery on foot – from the base circuit at an altitude of 2600 feet to the summit hike at 8530 feet. With its countless toboggan runs, amongst them is the longest run in the Alps: the 9.3 mile long run leads from Faulhorn down to Grindelwald with a descent of 5200 feet. Perfect for families is the Bobrun from Allmendhubel to Mürren. Toboggan rides are possible on Bussalp, Sulwald-Isenfluh and Allmendhubel. Also unique to the area is the «Velogemel». The wooden snow bicycle is Grindelwald's trademark. Every guest should try out this snow sport machine and see for him or herself just how much fun it is. Every year Velogemel World Championships are even held in Grindelwald. There is also access to the great Switzerland network of trains. Take a ride to Jungfrauoch, the highest train station in Europe, or a cable car ride to the top of Schilthorn- Piz Gloria, one of the highlights amongst the day trips.

Quality and Tradition Combined at the Hotel Derby- 3 star, An Ideal starting point for all activities and centrally situated, the hotel is surrounded by cheerful, pulsating life. Guests from all over the world appreciate the genuinely Swiss style of the hotel, as well as the high standards of comfort and facilities. Convenient to the railway station, in the heart of Grindelwald. Rooms have panoramic views of the Alps. Cozy local pub, Swiss specialties in the Föhrenstube restaurant hall with hotel-bar so as Cava-Cellar-Bar (cheese fondue and live music).
