Jackson Hole. Since its inception in the '60s, Jackson Hole Mountain Resort has been the proving ground for extreme skiers looking to make a name for themselves. The terrain at Jackson is known across the globe for being some of the most challenging—and rewarding—there is. Tight chutes, like the iconic Corbet's Couloir, big airs, deep snow and steep lines are what make Jackson Hole famous. However, there are dozens of wide-open trails for beginners and picture-perfect cruisers and progressive bump runs for intermediates, and much more. While a Jackson Hole ski vacation will always be top-of-mind with expert skiers as a bucket list destination because of the advanced and extreme terrain on its slopes and easily accessed side country, Jackson brings a lot more to the plate than just being a place for adrenaline junkies to jump off cliffs. Not only does Jackson Hole exude refreshing cowboy character, on and off the slopes, but its All New-All Blue terrain off of Casper chairlift is a game-changer for intermediates. At Jackson Hole ski resort, you'll be awed by the breathtakingly rugged Teton Mountains, and equally wooed by the authentic and welcoming Wild West atmosphere that pervades both Teton Village and downtown Jackson Hole, which are 15 minutes apart. Everything about Jackson Hole, even down to the shopping and dining is reminiscent of a bygone day and makes for one unforgettable ski vacation. <https://www.jacksonhole.com/>

Parkway Inn: Located just 3 blocks from Jackson Hole's Historic Town Square, stands The Parkway Inn of Jackson Hole. Locally owned and operated, The Parkway has offered guests a friendly mix of modern comfort, old world charm, and warm hospitality for over 30 years. The Parkway Inn is just a short drive from Grand Teton National Park and the Jackson Hole Ski Resort, and less than an hour from Yellowstone National Park. Enjoy a complimentary continental breakfast in our fireplace lounge. Join us in the afternoon for hot apple cider in the winter. Meet with friends and family and enjoy the board games and collection of books provided. Stroll along the wooden sidewalks of the historic town square and visit the unique shops, nightspots, and restaurants. From classic to contemporary, there are over 25 art galleries featuring all of the big names in Western art. After a day of skiing, take a soothing soak in one of our two spas, go for a refreshing swim in the lap pool, or relax in one of our saunas and be ready for one of Jackson's great restaurants. <http://www.parkwayinn.com/>
