

From Paul Kimicata, V.P. of Travel:

This is to help our members decide which level of the Epic pass to purchase.

All PSC trips will be Epic Pass trips except for Alyeska. So, ALL TRAVELERS on the other five PSC trips (and people just skiing local) MUST PURCHASE lift tickets for their destinations through the Epic Pass link.

Go to the below link and purchase an Epic Pass for between 1 to 7 days. Determine where you will be skiing and for how many days and purchase your pass accordingly. Some passes have blackout dates! It is much more economical to purchase lift passes from the link than the resorts.

Epic Pass link: <https://pittsburgh-ski-club-passes.events.ski.com/>

The Epic pass pricing is good until Labor Day. The April 21st deadline for the Epic pass is for additional 10 buddy passes. When you purchase 5 or more epic day passes, epic local or full epic through the above link there is a one-trip, $30 land package credit for Breckenridge, Heavenly Valley, Crested Butte, Telluride or Park City. The 2023 trip costs are higher for both lodging and transportation.

These trip prices are approximate because 2023 Southwest flight costs are not yet available
